1.	Mizoram	1. OBSERVATION OF NATIONAL YOUTH DAY AND LEGAL AWARENESS ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED UNDER DAWN SCHEME FOR THE PERIOD OF 5th to 12th JANUARY 2026 BY DLSA LUNGLEI The activities conducted to observe National Youth Day from 5th to 12th January, 2026, are as follows: a. Report on Legal Awareness Program on the observation of National Youth Day at Rescue Centre, Kawmzawl on Dt 08.01.2026: As part of the NALSA DAWN Scheme and observation of National Youth Day, an awareness session was conducted on Dt 08.01.2026(Friday) at Rescue Centre, Kawmzawl, Lunglei which is a correctional and rehabilitation centre for people suffering from alcohol and drug addiction. The event focused on the NALSA (Legal Services to the Victims of Drug Abuse and Eradication of Drug Menace) Scheme, specifically the DAWN initiative. A total of 60 participants attended the session, which aimed to empower and educate the youth residing at the rehabilitation home. Pi ZD. Malsawmtluangi, Assistant, LADCS served as the resource person for the program. In her keynote address, she emphasized	Legal Awareness Program on the observation of National Youth Day at Rescue

	that rehabilitation is not just about physical recovery but also about legal empowerment and social reintegration. She highlighted that a drug-free lifestyle begins with self-awareness and understanding one's own worth. She added that the commitment to refrain from substances is the most vital step in the recovery journey. She also outlined various drug-related offences and the corresponding penalties, ensuring that the inmates were fully aware of the serious consequences of engaging with illegal substances. She further elaborated on the initiatives of the District Legal Services Authority DLSA, especially its efforts to offer free legal aid to persons requiring assistance and to facilitate rehabilitation services for individuals striving to give up drug abuse so that they are not marginalized and can transition back into society with dignity. Success Story: Testimonial : Mr F Vanlaldika, "I have been struggling for more than a month to stay away from drug addiction, but after listening to the resource person today, I feel a renewed sense of purpose. I am deeply impressed by the speech on a drug-free lifestyle; it made me realize that to truly refrain from drugs, my own personal commitment is the most important factor. This session has helped me know myself better and has given me the strength to stay true to my path of recovery."

b. Legal Awareness on NALSA's DAWN Scheme at TKP Pukpui on Dt 11.01.2025.

A Legal Awareness Program was conducted on Dt 11.01.2026 among the members of Pukpui Thalai Kristian Pawl on the occasion of National Youth Day. A total of 55 youths participated in the program. Ms. Ruth Rosangpuii, Para Legal Volunteer under the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Lunglei, acted as the resource person for the program.

During the session, she provided extensive information on the DAWN Scheme, and spoke about the harmful effects of drug abuse, including its physical and mental impacts on individuals, she also highlighted the various stigma faced by the abusers in the community. She strongly encouraged the youth present to refrain from drug use and to actively contribute toward eradicating drug-related issues within their community. She also shared valuable insights into various services offered by the DLSA, such as Free Legal Aid, Lok Adalat, and particularly the Legal Aid Clinic available in their locality. She urged participants to make full use of these services so that the community could be better supported in accessing justice.

Success Story:

Testimonial: Mr Laldinliana, "Attending the Legal Awareness Program was truly eye-opening for me. Before this, I knew a little about drugs and the problems they cause, but I never really understood how deeply they affect a person. After hearing Ms. Ruth, I feel much more aware of these risks, and it has made me more committed to staying away from drugs. What really touched me was learning about the NALSA DAWN Scheme and its services, it made me realize that support is out there, you just have to be willing to seek it. I also didn't know much about legal help before. Learning about Free Legal Aid, Lok Adalat, and the Legal Aid Clinic has made me feel more confident that if I or someone I know ever face a legal issue, we have places we can turn to for help. I walked away from the program feeling more informed and hopeful, and I'm glad I could be part of it."

c. PLEDGE TAKING CEREMONY ON NCB'S "SAY YES TO LIFE, NO TO DRUGS" INITIATIVE

A solemn Pledge Taking Ceremony was conducted among the youths of Thalai Kristian Pawl Pukpui on 11.01.2026. All 55 participants committed to the "Say No to Drugs and Yes to Life" campaign, vowing to protect their futures and contribute positively to the community. The pledge aims to empower young people to make healthy life choices, resist peer pressure, and build a supportive environment that discourages substance abuse while promoting personal growth, leadership, and community well-being. The program was followed by interactive sessions on the dangers of drug use, and a collective affirmation of each youth's commitment to uphold the values of sobriety, responsibility, and mutual respect. Through this initiative, members of the TKP Pukpui hopes to foster a generation of informed and resilient youths who champion drug-free lifestyles and work together for a healthier, safer future.

d. Digital Campaign and Circulation of National Helpline No. through Social Media on the observance of National Youth Day under NALSA DAWN Scheme:

The District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Lunglei initiated a digital awareness campaign using Ms. Rosangpuii Ralte, Actress and Influencer as the ambassador of DAWN Scheme creating a 1:06 min video which is uploaded across multiple social media platforms on Dt 09.01.2026 to promote the National Helpline Number under the NALSA DAWN Scheme. The primary objective of this initiative was to ensure that members of the public are well-informed about the helpline, thereby facilitating easier access to justice. In addition, the campaign sought to reach out to individuals affected by drug abuse, including those currently struggling and their families and to encourage them to utilize the helpline for legal guidance, support with legal matters, and assistance in rehabilitation.

e. Dissemination of NALSA's National Helpline No. at various locations within Lunglei Town.

The District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Lunglei undertook an initiative to disseminate information about the NALSA Helpline Number - 15100 within various public locations across Lunglei on Dt 12.01.2026. Signboards containing the helpline number and related information were displayed at key locations across the town, such points included departmental offices, the taxi stand, bus stand, market areas, hospital and also distributed leaflets among members of the public through direct hand-outs to pedestrians. The objective of the campaign was to raise awareness among persons affected by drug abuse about the NALSA National Helpline Number so that they are encouraged to utilize this service to the fullest; for legal guidance, access to free legal aid, assistance to help them pursue recovery and build a drug-free life and assistance in rehabilitation and drug-related cases.

OBSERVATION OF NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY AND AWARENESS CAMPAIGN ON SEX-SELECTIVE PRACTICES AND PREVENTION OF CHILD MARRIAGE BY DLSA, LUNGLEI.

- Date : 24th January, 2026
- Time : 10:30am
- Place : Anganwadi Centre I
Venglai
- No. of Audience : 60

In observance of National Girl Child Day, the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Lunglei, organized a legal awareness campaign at Anganwadi Centre, Venglai - I, Lunglei, on January 24, 2026, focusing on eliminating sex-selective practices and preventing child marriage, aligning with NALSA ASHA SOP guidelines.

The programme aimed at raising awareness about the harmful impacts and the legal consequences of sex-selective practices and child marriage, sensitizing the community on legal provisions, including the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006, and the Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques Act, 1994, promoting gender equality, emphasizing the importance of girls' education, and empowerment.

This awareness session yielded positive outcomes, resulting in an increase in awareness about legal rights and support mechanisms, and the attendees expressed commitment to preventing child marriages and promoting girls' education. Approximately 70 members, including Anganwadi workers, parents and their children participated in the event.

Testimonial: From Pi Liankhumi, Anganwadi Worker:

'On the 24th of January, 2026, we had the privilege of observing National Girl Child Day, a significant occasion dedicated to reaffirming the importance of eliminating sex-selective practices and preventing child marriage to ensure equitable rights for the girl child. The programme was truly impactful, and we greatly benefited from this awareness initiative and gained valuable knowledge about legal protection for girls, eligibility for support schemes, and the long-term impact on family and the well-being of children. We are truly grateful to the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Lunglei, for organizing this programme. Their efforts have played a crucial role in spreading awareness and ensuring that the vision of gender equality and girl child empowerment becomes a reality.'
